excellent place very busy, but very helpful staff. No one in our group of 5 spoke malayalam. there were first difficulties in ordering. Apparently, only sadhya is served during lunchtime. a very helpful man who spoke English helped us to do the very many, always insisted we try every court. collect us four sweet dishes instead of the standard two. excellent eating. highly recommended. I told the waiter what vegan means and what I don't eat. So he recommended a court, and he was very pressing about it, although the menu was great and I was interested in others. the food comes naturally with butter in it. I later have a new plate without butter. but it was not delicious, and the tee I had ordered never came. just another terrible vegan experience in kerala. read more.
