The sushi was excellent, especially the not rice rolls. However, the service was slow and the server we had was frustrated because the restaurant seemed to be short staff. We enjoyed the terrace and would visit again. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Sushi Rokkan:

this was a quiet couple of dinners and the distance of the esstic allowed for satisfactory private sphere. the waitress even checked our reservation comments carefully and had a dessert selection hidden for an surprise after we were done. "There's always a place for cake," she said when she wished my good birthday. read more.
