The first thing the staff did was to ask about allergies. Many gluten-free options. The onion soup came with gluten-free crosses. They also served gluten-free bread. Tenderloin was amazing and tender!!! The dessert was also good. The drinks are extremely strong and you can taste the cheap/local alcohol. I just drank after two drinks. But the food was excellent and the views were amazing!! Do you want to book a table... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather.
