Beautiful setting. Food and drink were very expensive, which I suppose should be expected for a Ritz-Carlton. (The least expensive glass of wine was $22 for a wine we can buy back home for less than $16/bottle. Salad, bruschetta and the crispy cracker-type bread were delicious. Pasta bolognese and spaghetti with tomatoes and basil were good, but very rich. I would guess they add butter and/or cream to their sauces. S... read more.
